

TechTrek Limited has acquired the staff and facilities of Digital Document's scanning and capture operation in Aylesford Kent as part of their ongoing strategy for further geographic representation within the UK.

London, December 2010 – TechTrek Limited, a global provider of data management solutions, is proud to announce its acquisition of Digital Document's Kent based operation. The acquisition brings very experienced technical skills and scanning/data capture facilities to TechTrek's fast growing UK operation.

Tony Gale, TechTrek's Chairman, "We are delighted to announce this acquisition; the opportunity to acquire such a readymade facility is rare and we are very fortunate to obtain the services of such experienced data capture staff. We welcome them to the TechTrek team and wish them every success in their new environment."

"It is essential for TechTrek to add regional representation to our central digital archive and our offshore backoffice services to ensure our clients receive leading data management services at cost effective rates."
